

Call for papers!

The Journal of Patient-Centered Research and Reviews is actively seeking original manuscript submissions in all fields of medicine from primary to specialty care.

JPCRR is a member of the Directory of Open Access Journals and offers double-blind peer review with no author fees of any kind. General submissions are welcome at any time.

JPCRR considers many types of articles, including:

- Original Research
- Systematic Review / Meta-Analysis
- Narrative Review
- Quality Improvement
- Brief Report
- Topic Synopsis
- From the Other Side of the Table (patient perspective)
